

Laurent Xavier DUBOIS

PHOTOGRAPHY

PORTFOLIO 2014

/ PROFILE

Born in French Polynesia in 1987, Laurent Xavier DUBOIS has grown up on Reunion Island and devotes himself at an early age to a passion for technique and image.

In France, where he graduates as an IT engineer, he dedicates his spare time to his photography club, photography contests, Fashion shows as well as many other photography activities of his interest: portraits, urban landscapes, nature in France and abroad. Laurent has now more than 7 years of experience with digital cameras and lighting as a freelance photographer. He shoots in his own studio for the last 5 five years now that he is Fashion oriented.

Web activist, the young photographer expresses himself on his personal blog where he shares some of his lighting techniques and gears through reviews. He was one of the first talking about the strobist technique in France. Eventually, all of his Fashion shows are published on his Fashion blog dedicated to Fashion Weeks.

Now he is looking for job opportunities abroad as he is very open-minded and proficient in English.
